

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A cleaning (stripping) solution comprises a mixture of a first compound, a second compound and water. The cleaning solution can effectively remove metal oxides without damaging the surface of the metal materials. The cleaning solution can 5 successfully remove both organic and inorganic residues.